

THE AFRICAN RENAISSANCE
AND THE
AFRO-ARAB SPRING

A SEASON OF REBIRTH?

Foreword by Thabo Mbeki, Former President of South Africa

EDITED BY Charles Villa-Vicencio,
Erik Doxtader, and Ebrahim Moosa

Contents

Foreword
The Arab Reawakening: An Africa Renaissance Perspective		ix
Thabo Mbeki
Introduction
Beginning Again? The Question of a Continent		xvii
Erik Doxtader, Charles Villa-Vicencio, and Ebrahim Moosa
1	From Cairo to the Cape: The Dilemmas of Revolution	1
	Shamil Jeppie
2	Gathering the Pieces: The Structural, Social, and Psychological Elements of African Renewal	17
	Don Foster
3	Understanding a Flawed Miracle: The History, Dynamics, and Continental Implications of South Africa's Transition	31
	Charles Villa-Vicencio
4	Irreconcilable Truths?: Gender-Based Violence and the Struggle to Build an Inclusive History	49
	Helen Scanton
5	Managing Transition: Lessons from Tunisia	63
	Ibrahim Sharqieh
6	Is There a Center to Hold? The Problem of Transition in Post-Qaddafi Libya	71
	Asif Majid
7	The Pharaoh Returns: The "Politics of Order" and the Muslim Yearning for Freedom	85
	Ebrahim Rasool

8	Political Theology in the Aftermath of the Arab Spring: Returning to the Ethical Ebrahim Moosa	101
9	The One and the Many: Religious Coexistence and Belonging in Postapartheid Society Abdulkāder Tayob	121
10	A Popular Revolution? Gender Inequality and Political Change in North Africa Katherine Marshall	139
11	A “New” Pan-Africanism: Future Challenges Chris Landsberg	157
12	The Potential of an African Assertion—Once More, in the Name of a Renaissance Erik Døxtader	171
Appendices
	A. Colonization and Independence of African Countries	193
	B. Select Chronology of Afro-Arab Spring	197
	C. Pan-Africanism: Select Initiatives, Organizations, and Conventions	207
Acknowledgments
211
Abbreviations
213
Contributors
215
Index
217		